

Identifying barriers and facilitators that nutritionists and dietitians experience in Pakistan

This study amplifies the voices of nutritionists and dietitians in Pakistan to uncover the barriers and facilitators shaping their practice. By exploring challenges across individual, organizational, and policy levels, we aim to inform actionable strategies that strengthen the nutrition workforce and empower them to deliver impact at scale.

