

Effect of Nutrition Education Intervention on Diet Quality Among Adolescent Girls in South and Southeast Asia: A Systematic Review

Key Message: Despite heterogeneity in intervention and outcome measures, this review provides evidence that nutrition education interventions improved diet–quality–related outcomes among adolescent girls in South and Southeast Asia, regardless of study quality.

Presenter: Satyajit Kundu, Griffith University, Australia

Co-authors: Mujibul Anam, Pavitra Rajesh, Faruk Ahmed

